INTELSAT

Provided general counsel and advice to the client regarding international telecommunications policy. Also participated in consultations with Executive Branch officials and congressional staff to explain how INTELSAT works and discuss the legal impediments which exist under INTELSAT agreements to prevent it from competing with specialized private systems.

CANADA

Services included the performance of research on various legislative and administrative policy issues for the Embassy of Canada. Research performed by the firm included meetings with congressional staff and Executive Branch officials; these meetings were held purely to gather information and no effort was made to present the views of the Government of Canada. The firm has advised personnel of the Canadian Embassy regarding a wide variety of domestic and international issues of concern to Canada, and has prepared various written materials for the Canadian Embassy staff.

PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

Our services primarily consisted of general counsel and advice regarding a variety of trade and foreign policy issues of concern to the client. In addition to general research on and monitoring of these issues, our activities included meetings with selected congressional staff concerning S. Res. 74. We also advised the client regarding the establishment of an exchange program pursuant to the requirements of the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act.

FRUPAC

Services included the provision of counsel and advice to the client regarding U.S. laws, regulations and policies on a number of trade and import matters, particularly with respect to H.R. 4255, H.R. 6064, H.R. 3998 and S. 2896 and their effect on the importation of asparagus. Such representation also included meetings and conferences with congressional staff and members of Congress concerning this legislation.

12.

INTELSAT

Consultation with decisionmakers within the Executive Branch and Congress to explain how INTELSAT works and to discuss the legal impediments which exist under INTELSAT agreements to prevent it from competing with specialized private systems. Activities included meetings and telephone conversations throughout the past six months with congressional and Executive Branch staff regarding the status of White House review of NTIA and SIG recommendations for international satellite telecommunications policy.

PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

Services in this regard included conferences with selected congressional staff regarding Senate disposition of S. Res. 74.

FRUPAC

Our activities in this regard included meetings and conferences with congressional staff and Members of Congress regarding the status of certain trade legislation, in particular, H.R. 4255, H.R. 6064, H.R. 3998 and S. 2896, relating to the importation of asparagus.
